The First “Battle of Alberta”

Let’s get ready to rumble! The Calgary Fire Brigade’s Hockey Club and the Edmonton Thistles’ Hockey Club have the first ever Hockey match between these rival cities.

The game takes place on Edmonton’s home ice and Calgary wins with a shut out!

1895

While attempting to return enfranchisement to the Hawai’ian people, the Monarch of the Kingdom of Hawai’i Queen Lili’uokalani, is forced to abdicate the throne by plantation owners and the U.S. marines.

Despite her efforts to promote Hawai’ian heritage while imprisoned, in three years’ time the U.S.A. will annex the island.

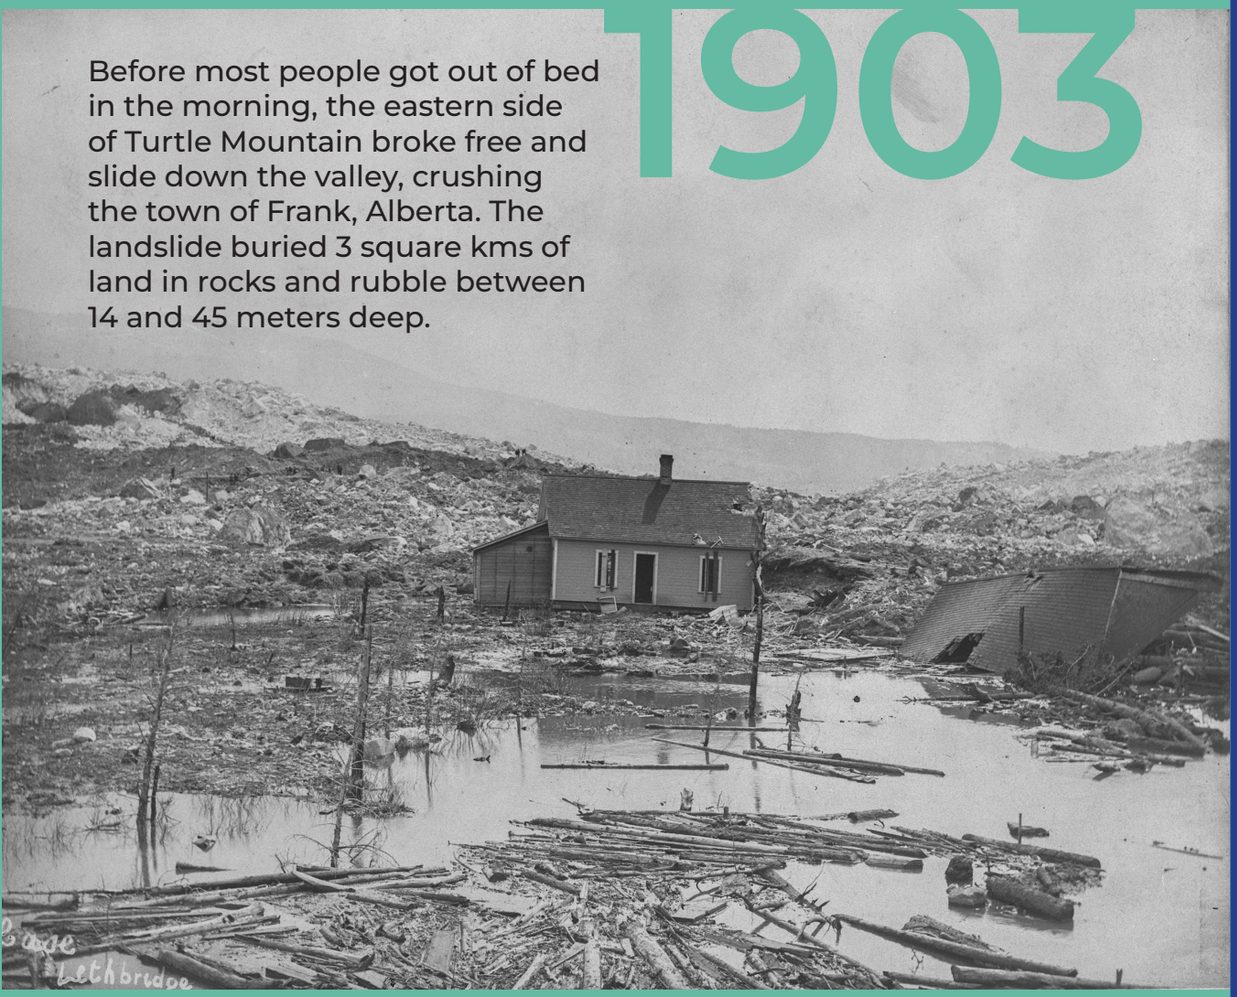

Queen Lili’uokalani forced to abdicate

Digital work by Mark James Miller from an unknown photographer., CC BY-SA 3.0 <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/3.0>, via Wikimedia Commons

The Landslide Levels Frank, Alberta

1903

Before most people got out of bed in the morning, the eastern side of Turtle Mountain broke free and slide down the valley, crushing the town of Frank, Alberta. The landslide buried 3 square kms of land in rocks and rubble between 14 and 45 meters deep.

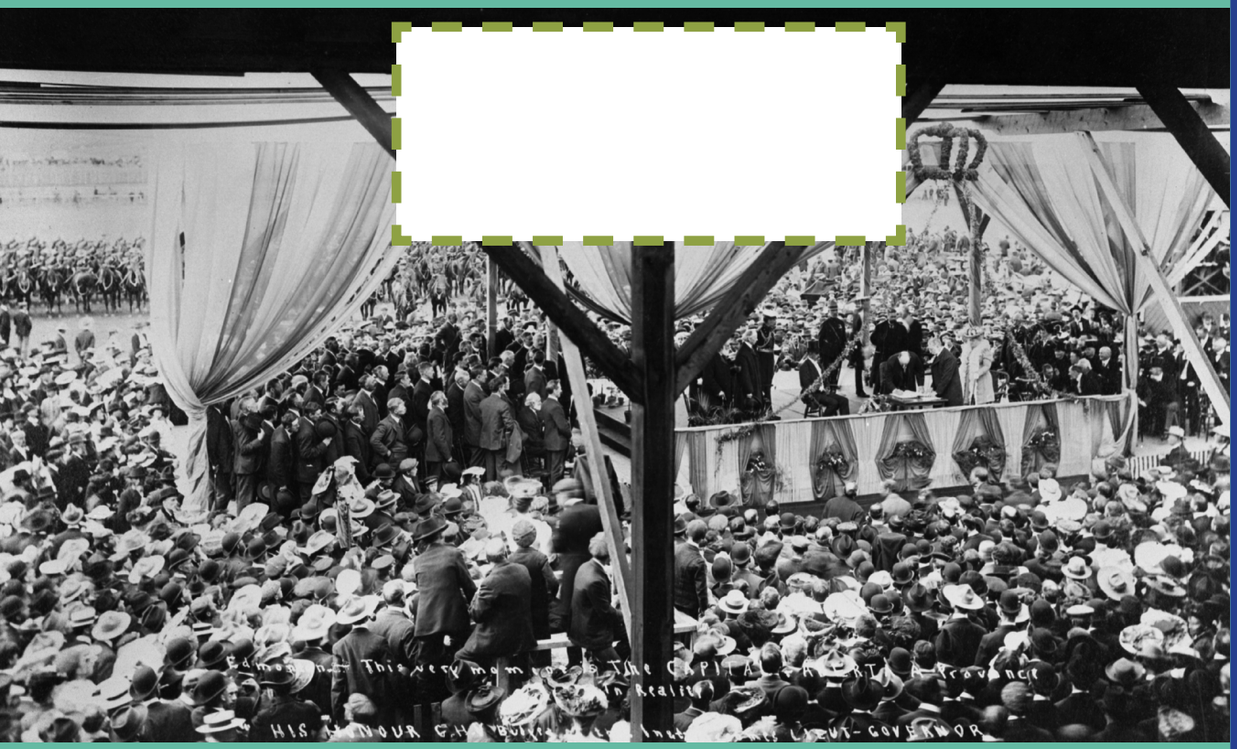

Provincial Archives of Alberta, A15597

The Pepsi-Cola Company is Born

After creating the first Pepsi-Cola in 1898, pharmacist Caleb D. Bradham decided to formalize the Pepsi-Cola Company in this year. His attempt to duplicate Coca-Cola was fairly successful considering the two Colas are still battling for supremacy today.

ENRDIS, CC BY-SA 4.0 <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/4.0>, via Wikimedia Commons

Alberta Becomes a Province

This is the year Alberta graduates from district to province! Alberta and Saskatchewan are created out of the Northwest Territories on the same day, though it was originally proposed that the two would be one extra-large province tentatively named “Buffalo”.

1905

The Revolution of 1905

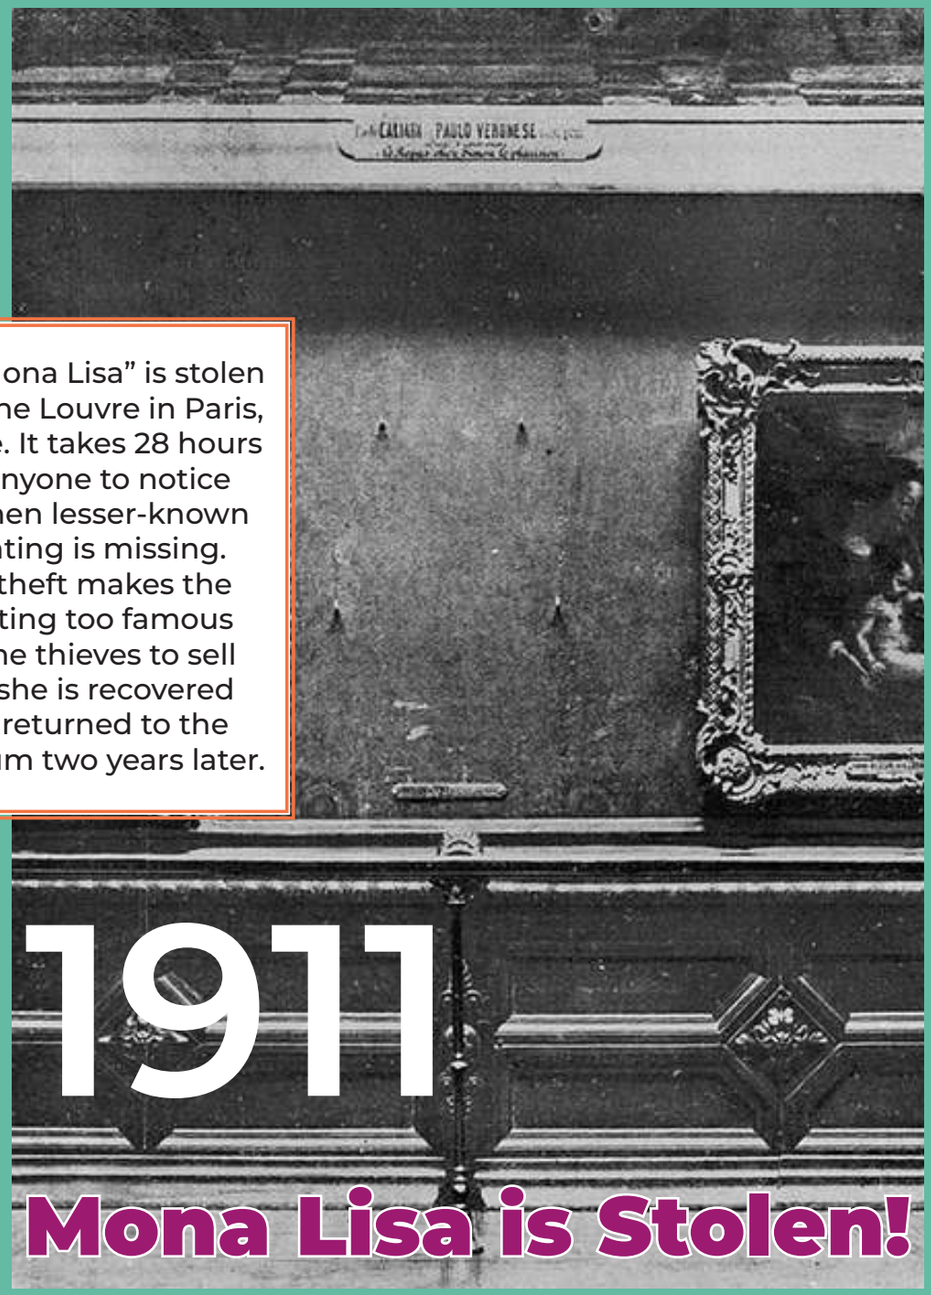

In opposition to Russian Tsarist authorities, 170,000 workers in Ukrainian cities rise up in the Revolution of 1905. Resistance in cities like Kyiv, Kharkiv, and Odesa lead to mutinies on military ships like the famous Potemkin. Tsar Nicholas II eventually gives in and grants Ukrainians a limited parliament and freedom of the press.

Unknown author, Public domain, via Wikimedia Commons

First Session in the Legislature

Despite it still being under construction, our MLAs simply couldn't wait and excitedly held their first session in the Legislature in this year. Albertans flooded into the galleries to watch the first session in the chamber, even with poor acoustics and a wooden temporary "grand" staircase.

1911

Mona Lisa is Stolen!

The "Mona Lisa" is stolen from the Louvre in Paris, France. It takes 28 hours for anyone to notice the then lesser-known painting is missing. The theft makes the painting too famous for the thieves to sell and she is recovered and returned to the museum two years later.

Mona Lisa stolen-1911 - Public domain cabinet

1912

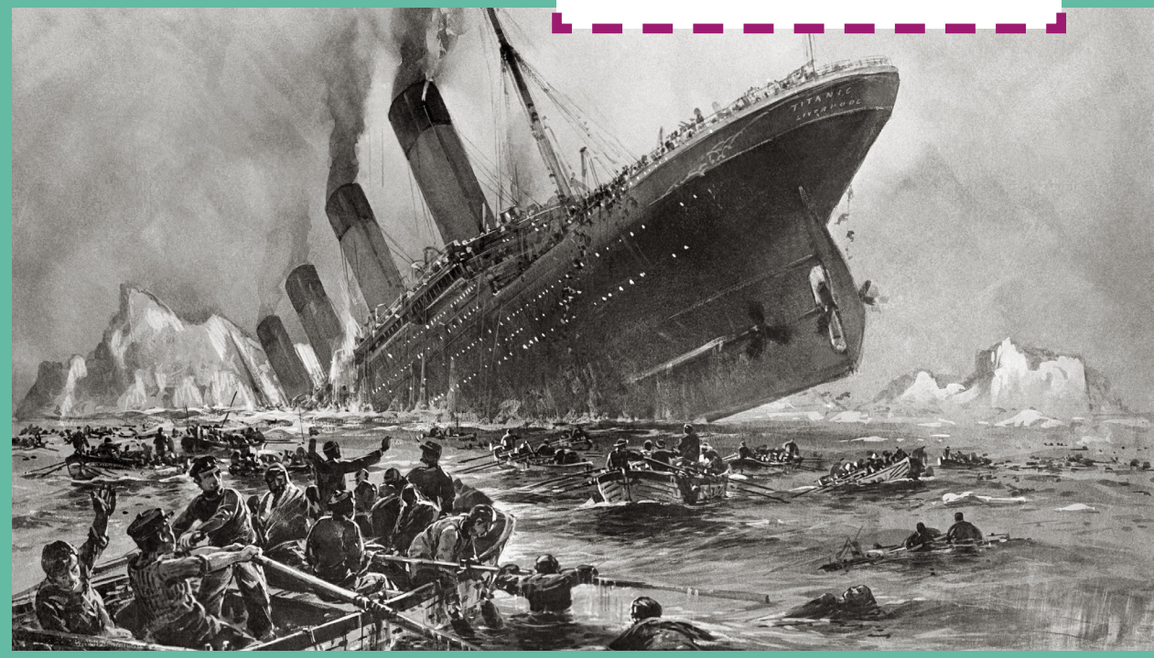

The Legislature is Open

Nearing the end of its construction, the Alberta Legislature is officially opened. The Governor General, the Duke of Connaught Prince Arthur, was there to help open the doors to the delight of excited onlookers.

Titanic Sinks!

While the biggest ocean liner of its time claimed to be “unsinkable”, it struck an iceberg on its maiden voyage. The brand-new luxury ship carried many rich and famous passengers, as well as travelers of lower social classes. However, only enough life rafts for 1/3 of the people on board. The tragic sinking of the Titanic is one of the deadliest of its kind.

Willy Stöwer, Public domain, via Wikimedia Commons

Votes for Albertan Women

Women's suffrage in Alberta is successful in this year, granting many women the right to vote in provincial elections. In the next election, not only would women vote around the province, but two women – Roberta McAdams and Louise McKinney- would be elected into the assembly.

Canada's Parliament Building Burns Down

The Canadian House of Commons in Ottawa was discussing the transportation of fish when they were interrupted to evacuate, the Parliament building was on fire! The fire, started by someone sneaking a cigar in the reading room, moved fast and many struggled to get out in time thanks to the black smoke.

1916

Centre Block on fire, February 3, 1916 via John Boyd, Library and Archives Canada / r000243